

Educational Department

Conducted by County Superintendent Crocker

The winter term at the State Normal begins November 28.

In Richardson county there are 6,465 children of school age.

The next meeting of the "Richardson County Teachers' Association" will be held in Falls City, Friday evening and Saturday, November 11th and 12th.

Miss Mabel Whitaker, teacher in Dist. 78 was thrown from a horse last Saturday and seriously hurt. Miss Elizabeth Hossack who is taking a vacation while a new floor is being placed in her school house taught for Miss Whitaker this week.

The compulsory education law, which has been for so long isolated with impunity on every hand in this city, (Humboldt) is to be regarded in the future, as the board of education announce their intention of causing trouble for some one. They are making a quiet canvass and promise prosecution where warnings are not heeded.—Humboldt Leader.

Dist. 26, James Wiltse, teacher—We have a nice school of about 31. School has been in progress for six weeks. We have about fifteen of the larger pupils taking the muscular movement in penmanship. They are advancing nicely. Huble's Mathematscal cards are very handy and we are very grateful for them. Several of the boys have had to stay home on account of fall work. Those who are attending are doing nicely.

DAWSON SCHOOL NOTES.

The Dawson teachers' Reading Circle held its second meeting last Friday evening. There were nine teachers present including a visitor, Prof. Schlaiter of Humboldt. The next meeting will be held Friday evening Oct. 29th.

The basket ball game between Dawson and Humboldt teams was forfeited Friday evening owing to a misunderstanding of the rules.

The board has purchased a large wall-map of Nebraska and U. S.—Rand McNally Publishers Dawson now has a lecture course consisting of seven numbers. They were placed by the Glazier Lyceum Bureau, and are exceptionally good.

Dist. 27, Mamie Kanaly, teacher—The last log school house in Richardson county is gone, and Dist. 27 now has in its stead a fine new school building. School began Monday Oct. 10.

BARADA SCHOOL NOTES.

Our enrollment is 68 with an average attendance of 55. The interest is good. Our reading circle met last Tuesday evening October 25, a meeting of teachers, school officers and patrons will be held. Paper and discussion will be on the general subject, "Cooperation of the Home and the School."

SHUBERT SCHOOL NOTES.

The Shubert teachers are doing work with water colors. They have a regular time for brush work. Each week three pictures are painted. The work in music is good, it would do your heart good to hear those little folks sing the notes. Prof. Carr will deliver an address at Barada, Oct. 25,
